

I do not support the NAB's petition number 04-160 and feel strongly that this will heart the radio listners available variety. I pay $12 per month for the services that XM provides its listeners and still find myself occasionally tuning into AM radio for traffic and weather as well. I think that competition is good for radio and that it would be effectively eliminated if you allowed this NAB petition to pass.